

SALLY ELMIGER, AICP, LEED AP, PRINCIPAL is trained in both community planning and landscape architecture, and has focused her 22-year planning practice on city and township plan review, ordinance drafting, historic preservation, natural area preservation and community engagement. Her wide-ranging experience includes master planning, zoning, historic district planning, environment/watershed planning and wetlands consulting. She has completed training in the National Charrette Institute's (NCI) Charrette System, the public engagement module of the MiPlace, place-making initiative, and Redevelopment Ready Communities.

EDUCATION

MLA, Landscape Architecture | University of Michigan

BS, Organizational Behavior | University of Illinois

EXPERIENCE

Landscape Architect/Associate/Senior Associate, Carlisle|Wortman Associates, Inc.
Ann Arbor, MI, 1999-Present

Landscape Architect, Beckett and Raeder, Inc.
Ann Arbor, MI, 1996-1999

Teaching Assistant, Department of Landscape Architecture
University of Michigan, 1996

CREDENTIALS

American Institute of Certified Planners
Membership No. 21715

Leadership in Energy and Environmental Design -
Accredited Professional, Neighborhood Development

PROFESSIONAL AFFILIATIONS

American Planning Association

Michigan Association of Planning

HONORS

Sigma Lambda Alpha, National Landscape
Architecture Honor Society, Alpha Xi Chapter

American Society of Landscape Architects
Honor Award